Keokuk Senior High School
Keokuk, Iowa
Volume 78

This was it! The year was 1981, and you were here, a force shaping this school year. It was a year of contrasts, freshmen finding their way around, seniors knowing all too well their way around.

Here are some of the scenes from this year. We hope that they evoke many fond memories of a memorable year.

Dedication

The 1981 Comment staff would like to dedicate the 1981 Comment to two people who were important in shaping the lives of many KHS students over the years.

Our first dedication is to Mr. Dale Eidem who taught chemistry and served as associate principal for three years before his untimely demise.

Our second dedication is to Mrs. Geneva Eymann who spent many years teaching in our system, many of them as a business teacher. We wish her the best of luck during her years of retirement.

A final note: Mr. Stormer, the yearbook adviser, would like to thank Monica Westermeyer, this year's editor, for her time and effort over the last two years in helping to produce an excellent yearbook.

A lot of pre-season training and a summer of hard determination led the Keokuk Chiefettes and Coach Bock to a second-place finish in the conference and a sectional championship, the first since softball began in Keokuk. The team made it to the second round of district action before losing 0-8 to Notre Dame.

In addition to compiling a 16-4 conference record and a 33-9 sesson record, the team produced three All-Conference players — Jana Froeling, Renita Galbreath, and Sharon Law.

COACHING STAFF - C. Everingham, defensive coach; A. Sellers, defensive line; J. Vandenberg, head coach; J. Kersten, offensive line

Head coach Vandenberg was hopeful that the 1980 football season proved to be the turning point for the struggling Chiefs. Although the year was not a spectacular one for conference action, it did prove to be one in which Keokuk saw victories over two non-conference opponents.

The Chiefs blasted their way into the season with a 27-0 trouncing of Central Lee. During midseason the team may have gone winless, but they scrambled for three close losses — 12-15 against Washington, 25-26 against Mt. Pleasant, and 33-36 against Oskaloosa. It was not until the end of the season that the Chiefs won again, but they edged Quincy Notre Dame 7-6 to post a 2-7 record.

Conference Standings

Fairfield	5-0
Washington	4-1
Ft. Madison	3-2
Mt. Pleasant	2-3
Oskaloosa	1-4

On these two pages are highlights of the homecoming game against Oskaloosa. The Chiefs kept the fans in suspense before finally bowing out with a score of 33-36.

JUNIOR VARSITY - Row One: K. Keller, A. Concannon, J. Engelmeyer, L. Lovell, T. Bode; Row Two: B. Woodruff, M. Karre, L. Rodger, M. McAuliffe, T. Baustian, Coach D. Jensen

The volleyball Chiefettes continued to show improvement. In their second season of action they accumulated a 17-6 match record at the varsity level and a 13-1 match record at the junior varsity level. In addition, the Chiefettes advanced a round further into district action before going down to Aquinas 0-3 games.

Coach Jensen succeeded in developing two excellent teams that showed balance. The fact that the junior varsity was so outstanding will make it easy to fill in the gaps left by departing seniors Cassie Baugher, Jenni Lucas, Melinda Mueller, and Kathy Rodger so that 1981 season should be just as exciting and victorious.

The team also made several awards. Cassie Baugher was voted most valuable player and most valuable spiker. The most improved player was Kris Krueger, the most valuable server was Tracy Varner, and Sharon Law and Pam Deming shared the most valuable setter award. Jennie Lucas won the purple and white award.

The 1980-81 Chiefette gymnasts recorded another first in the history of KHS gymnastics when the entire team qualified for the regionals. Teams qualify by being first, second, or third in district competition. The Chiefettes placed third behind Iowa City West and Ottumwa, beating out Fairfield, Sigourney, Centerville, and Muscatine.

Besides the entire team earning the right to continue on to regionals, individuals may also qualify. Resa Eller made the grade in tumbling and floor exercise. Cyndi Six qualified in floor exercise. Kathy Keller made it on beam, and Terri Postle, the honorary team captain, earned her way through her vault work.

Quite a few gymnasts were picked on the Southeast Iowa Regional Coaches' Team. Terri Postle was named to the first team in vault. Resa Eller was honored on first team in both floor exercise and tumbling. Robin Dietsch qualified for first team on the uneven bars. Cyndi Six received honors in floor exercise. There were Chiefettes also named to the second team and receiving honorable mention.

Coach Winkelman was especially proud of the gymnasts when they all qualified for regional competition. Another high point of the season was the Ottumwa Invitational when the Chiefettes placed third out of nine teams, beating even host Ottumwa.

The team had no seniors so the prospects for 1981-82 are fantastic.

Resa Eller was selected as the most valuable gymnast. Kathy Keller received the most improved gymnast award. The most spirited gymnast was Amy Boecker, and Terri Postle scored the most points during the season.

"The 1980-81 Chief basketball season was filled with ups and downs," commented Coach VanDever and Coach Figge. And so it was. Losing to Muscatine their first time out, the team came back to beat Oskaloosa. Then came a down followed by an up.

After a three-game slump, the boys rallied and won the next four, including the championship in the Lee County Tournament. So the season went.

Coach VanDever stated that the tourney championship was definitely the high point and complimented the team on their togetherness on the court.

Although Coach Pohorsky's wrestling Chiefs finished the season with only a 1-9 dual record, the team produced enough developing young wrestlers to indicate that things may soon be getting better. And next year may well prove to be the turning point.

The two biggest signs of hope are in the persons of Kent Halstead and Tim McNitt, returning 1981-82 letterwinners who both qualified for state competition. Halstead finished second in district 3A tournament action to earn his state berth, and McNitt won the Class 3A district tournament at 105 lbs.

Of course, two wrestlers do not make a winning squad by themselves. Coming up from the freshman ranks next year will be four SE-7 freshman conference tournament champions — Andy Baum, Randy Gibson, Brent Pohorsky, and Troy Blankenship.

In addition, the team awarded various wrestlers team awards. The John Abell Most Valuable Wrestler Award went to senior Scott Arntzen, and the John Abell Memorial Camp Award went to freshman Andy Baum and sophomore Danny Daggs.

The most valuable freshman was Randy Gibson; Todd Barnes was voted the most improved freshman; and Brent Pohorsky captained the freshman squad.

On the junior varsity level, the most valuable junior varsity wrestler was Steve Wilsey. Curtis Hanan was voted the most improved junior varsity wrestler, and Steve Wilsey captained the squad.

Danny Daggs received the most improved varsity wrestler award, and Tim McNitt had the honor of being the varsity team captain.

All in all, things look good for next year's wrestling Chiefs.

Medalist and runner-up medalist honors normally went to Dawn Odell and Diana Robertson, including several meets in which the team lost. In addition, senior Odell was the runner-up medalist in the Winfield Tournament, which was quite an honor.

Letterwinners included Dawn Odell, Diana Robertson, Anne Grogan, Patti Skinner, Rose Ketterer, and Karen Patterson.

The Chief golfers turned in another impressive season. During regular season action, they lost only to Ottumwa (twice) and Burlington (once).

Their invitational record was not as rewarding perhaps, but they did finish second out of thirteen teams at Fairfield.

In addition, Tim Poe, Jeff Partridge, and Mike O'Hara were named as All-Conference players.

The Chiefs concluded a winning season by sending three players to state competition.

During regular dual season action the Chiefs offset five losses with six wins. Outstanding during the year were captain Dan Logan, who had an overall singles record of 17-2; Paco Sagaon, who finished with a 14-3 singles record; and David Hanan, who finished 17-1 in singles. Moe Abell was the most improved player.

At the Hannibal tournament, the Chiefs finished second out of eight. Logan, Hana, and Sagaon were flight winners in singles. Logan and Sagaon won first flight in doubles.

In the conference tournament, Ft. Madison edged out Fairfield and Keokuk by one point for the championship title. Hanan won the third flight championship. Logan and Sagaon won first flight in doubles as did Hanan and Abell in the secondflight.

At districts, Logan won the singles, and Sagaon and Hanan won in doubles competition.

At State, Hanan and Sagaon won the 1A doubles championship over a team from Boone. Logan finished his career in third place. In addition, he shared in the doubles championship as a freshman and finished in seventh place in 1980. He is the only Chief tennis player to represent Keokuk three years at State.

The outstanding feature of the season was the cooperation among the players as well as several adults who helped the team members to improve over the season.

Since the bonfire was eliminated two years ago, the football boosters have replaced that tradition with a new one. Last year they lighted up the pep rally with a sign that spelled Chiefs in fire. This year they added the word win, and it is reported that they will continue to add a word each year.

Remember this day? This is the day that the faculty and students finally vented their frustrations upon one another on the court. Promoted as a fund-raising activity for the Little Feathers, the game allowed everyone to let off a little of their pent-up energy. Despite a raging fight to show who was superior, the game ended in a tie.

Senior Picnic

Despite a daylong rain, the seniors still managed to have a fun time at their last informal get-together as a class. By the time the eating was over, the rain let up, allowing the seniors the opportunity to get in a few activities. It was fun for everyone, and special credit goes to class sponsor Mrs. Strong and the class officers for putting it all together.
